Amazon clone using React

Nowadays the first thing that someone does when they create a new business for trading goods is to convert their commerce to e-commerce. Many businesses even prefer to have e-commerce as their only mode of doing business. The potential of e-commerce is nearly limitless, reason for which we'll be going on a ride to create an e-commerce solution of our own!

Effect

Hollywood studios use green screens to create all kinds of incredible special effects. Your local weatherperson uses it to look like they're standing in front of a cool weather map. You can learn the secret behind the effects by building a web application which captures a webcam video with a green screen and replaces it with a background video or an image of your choice.
